WITHDRAWAL TROOPS FROM OVER THE LINE

(By Associated Press.)

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Nov. 25.—A protocol providing for the conditional withdrawal of the American troops now in Chihuahua, Mexico, and for the military control of the border, but with the supplemental stipulation that United States troops shall be sent into Mexico in pursuit of bandits at any time the American government deems it necessary, was signed late yesterday by the Mexican-American joint commission.

One of the official copies was taken by Alberto J. Pani of the Mexican commission, who will start Monday for Mexico to submit it to General Carranza for approval.

If the protocol is ratified by the two governments, the commission will reconvene December 8 to resume the discussion of other questions affecting the two countries, especially those relating to the protection of the life and property of Americans and other foreigners in Mexico.

If ratification by either government is withheld the work of the conference will be declared at an end.

The dead and wounded were left on the battlefield, as was done in the previous assaults. When the enemy broke and ran in disorder the heavy artillery took up the brunt of the fighting as the machine guns were outranged.

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—Messages of good will from the chancelleries of three of Europe's warring powers were read at a dinner given here last night by the League to Enforce Peace. The purpose of the banquet was to consider a program for a permanent league of nations at the close of the great conflict.

Approval of the principle proposed was given by Aristide Briand, premier of France; Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg of Germany, and Viscount Grey, Great Britain's secretary of state for foreign affairs.

Premier Briand's message said:

ONE MORE NATION IS CRUSHED BY AUSTRO-GERMAN OFFENSIVE

(By Associated Press.)

The process of squeezing Rumania between the jaws of the Teutonic military machine is proceeding rapidly. Pushing eastward from Galova and Wallachia, Von Falkenhayn's troops have broken all resistance on the lower Alt apparently, and already has turned his line of defense across western Rumania. Von Mackensen has forced passage of the Danube, forming the other jaw of the nut cracker.

carried the boat under the wheel. One man was decapitated, one fatally injured and one is missing. Helberger died aboard ship. Thirty-five were aboard the launch when she was struck.

Three U. S. sailors are dead and half a score injured. The Apache was tied to her dock with her wheel running to keep her against the wharf. The dead so far as known are: Helberger, Grover Campbell, R. E. Wiley. The bodies of the latter two are in the launch and were not recovered. Yeoman J. Jones suffered a broken jaw.

TRUSTED EMPLOYE BECOMES THIEF

COULD NOT LIVE ON SALARY AND FELL WHEN TEMPTED BY COSTLY JEWELS

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—Behind the $60,000 Harriman jewel robbery, brought to solution today by police investigation, lies a story of a middle aged and trusted employee who succumbed to temptation, according to his confession, while struggling to meet the cost of living in a fashionable suburb too expensive for his means. As a result he is under arrest, charged with grand larceny, together with his brother, who is held on a similar charge, accused of having disposed of part of the proceeds of the robbery.

Arthur P. Daggett, 42 years old, and married, who was guardian of the trust company vault where Mrs. E. H. Harriman, widow of the railroad capitalist, kept her jewelry, found them one day on the floor of the safe deposit, he told Police Inspector Faurot today.

"The opportunity presented itself, as I was in debt to the extent of $700," the inspector quoted Daggett as saying. "My salary was not a large one. I was getting only $1700 a year and I found it hard to live on that amount and keep up with the living at Larchmont. I was tempted many times to put the jewelry back, but I held it for some time waiting to see who owned it, and when no one put in a claim that it was lost I decided to get a loan on some of it."

Daggett's brother, Orville, 48 years of age, is accused of having disposed of a $40,000 ruby, part of the stolen jewelry. It was purchased, according to the police, by an optician for $650 from a man to whom Orville is asserted to have disposed of it. The ruby was thereafter several times sold until its travels furnished a clue which led to the apprehension of the Daggett brothers.

BERLIN, Nov. 25.—The Teutons repulsed Russo-Rumanian attacks in the Gergio mountains with heavy losses to the attackers. The Austro-Germans took several towns south of Alt pass. Resistance of the Rumanians in the lowlands of the lower Alt is broken and the Teutons have crossed the Alt. Von Mackensen has crossed the Danube and gained a footing on Rumanian soil.

Bulgarians Holding Firm

(By Associated Press.)

SOFIA, Nov. 25.—Bulgarians repulsed strong enemy attacks between the lakes of Ochrida and Presba, and lively artillery duels followed. East of Cerne bend night attacks were repulsed. The Bulgarians occupied islands of the Danube southeast of Craiova.

Germans Cross Danube

(By Associated Press.)

PETROGRAD, Nov. 25.—The Germans made a crossing of the Danube near Zimnitsa, 70 miles southwest of Bucharest.

(By Associated Press.)

Forces of the central powers are driving on Bucharest from three directions. To the west the troops of General von Falkenhayn have reached the Alt river; to the north the Germans and Austro-Hungarians are pressing southward, and some where along the Danube the forces of Field Marshal von Mackensen are crossing the river.

Western Wallachia apparently is in the hands of the Teutonic allies. Some Rumanians remain in the rear around Orsova, but that town, as well as Turnu-Severin, has been occupied by the Teutonic troops.

Violent fighting has renewed in Dobrudja. Bucharest says that an attempt by the Germans to cross the Danube at Simnitsa, 70 miles southwest of Bucharest, failed. Fighting has been reported in the region of Siliistria, and it may be that the German crossings of the river were made between the Chernovoda and Giurgova.

The Russians and Rumanians have taken the offensive in Dobrudja north of the Tchernovoda-Constanza railroad. Bucharest and Petrograd assert the Rumanians advanced on the whole front and occupied five towns fifteen miles north of the railroad line. The Russians progressed to twelve miles north of the railroad. Berlin declares the Russian offensive in Dobrudja was thrown back.

Serbian troops have occupied Rapesch, east of Monastir. North of Schudol the Serbians put a German force to flight.

Under arrest also is a jeweler charged with receiving stolen property. He is said to have advanced a $500 "loan" on $10,000 worth of gems.
